Tyler Lukasiewicz

Email: tlukasiewicz@knights.ucf.edu, tlukasiewicz@hackucf.org.
github: `http://github.com/kablaa/`   websight: `www.kabla.me`
Phone: 561-512-0837

- Programming Languages

  - C, C++, Java, Python, Assembly, LaTeX

- Proficient in Windows and Linux

- Majoring in Mathematics and Computer Science at The University of Central Florida

- Research

  - Worked for Dr. Jun Wang writing and editing academic papers on Big Data Analysis - Summer, 2013 - present. For a full list of published papers, see personal website.

- Clubs and Personal projects

  - HackUCF - joined in Fall, 2014
  - CTFs
    * Boston Key Part-2015,Ghost in The Shellcode-2015,Bsides Orlando-2015, Defcon Qualifier CTF-2015
  - Wargames
    * pwnable.kr
    * io.shamshthestack.org
    * I have written write-ups for specific challenges that I have solved; however, out of respect for the wishes of the admins I have not posted them on my github or my website. However, I will be happy to present them upon request
  - Experiance managing http server (apache2, fail2ban, logwatch,iptables, etc)
  - Worked on programming and building wireless PH and water level detector for IDEAS Aquaponics Garden
    * http://www.ideasforus.org/blog/connecting-a-garden-to-the-internet/
  - For more projects, see personal website and github.